

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2025 Brings a Boom in Home Entertaining: 'Everything is an Event' Offers Readers the Ultimate Hosting Blueprint

Marin County, CA – KWE Publishing is proud to announce the release of Everything is an Event, A Step-by-Step Guide: Creating Memorable Occasions for Today's Lifestyle with 15 Principles Revealed, the latest book by Marin County's own Marinda Freeman. This indispensable guide is perfectly timed to meet the surging interest in home entertaining as more people embrace hosting gatherings in their living spaces.

Everything is an Event offers expert advice in an easy-to-follow format, making it the essential resource for anyone - from professional event planners to parents organizing a birthday celebration. With her fifteen fundamental principals, Freeman provides a comprehensive roadmap to help readers confidently plan and execute events of any size or style.

“For anyone who has ever felt overwhelmed by the idea of planning an event—whether it’s a grand celebration or an intimate dinner—Everything is an Event is here to transform the process from stressful to seamless,” says Freeman. “I want readers to not only create unforgettable occasions but to enjoy their own parties as much as their guests do.”

Marinda Freeman’s step-by-step guidance helps readers navigate every aspect of hosting, from conceptualizing their vision to executing it with flair. Her approachable and reassuring tone alleviates any anxiety about entertaining, leaving readers empowered to tackle everything from milestone celebrations to spontaneous get-togethers.

Whether you’re seeking to elevate your skills as a host or simply looking for a new way to create meaningful connections with loved ones, Everything is an Event is your ultimate guide to hosting with confidence, style, and ease.

Everything is an Event hit bookstores on February 12, 2025, and was the #1 best seller on amazon for event planning, decorating and weddings! For more information, visit KWE Publishing's website or contact us: Jean Sime, jean@kwepub.com, 973-818-2416.

About the Author managing

Marinda Freeman is an experienced event designer with a rich history of planning and producing events from managing Martha Stewart Catering to running her own event planning business for four decades. Her passion for creating meaningful experiences inspired her to write Everything is an Event, which reflects her years of expertise, offering actionable insights and heartfelt advice to help readers create events that are as enjoyable for the host as they are for the guests. marindafreeman.com/Author

##